

Privacy Commitment

GET's commitment is to protect your privacy. That's why we work daily to ensure the highest levels of privacy and personal data protection, ensuring security and compliance with data protection laws.

What we know about you:

We hold identification data, contacts, payment information, and data concerning your relationship with GET. We may also have data regarding your service usage, such as your data consumption, but we do not look at the content of your browsing. We may also know your location to provide the service.

In order to provide the service, we may share your information with partners who must respect your personal data. We are committed to strict compliance with the rules applicable to privacy protection and rely on the same level of commitment from our partners and suppliers.

We use your information to:

- Manage your account and the service we provide;
- Manage our network and systems and our business;
- Improve our products and services;
- Communicate new GET products and services.

If you have any questions or need clarification about the processing of your personal data by GET, please refer to our Privacy Policy.